

-wild, violent public disorder caused by a group or crowd of persons in protest against another group, a government policy

-usually consists of an angry mob of people

-may involve arson or looting

-a violent protest

-often occurs in the streets