

-organized and armed resistance to the established government or ruler

-uprising

-violent acts in an attempt to change the existing government

-an attempt to change the balance of power