

WHO WAS IN CONFLICT AND WHY? (ANSWER KEY)

WHO?	WHO?	OVER WHAT ISSUE?
United States settlers and British settlers	were in conflict	over the control and ownership of land.
French-speaking and English-speaking merchants in Lower Canada	were in conflict	over who was to pay for possible improvements to roads, canals, harbours.
The Assembly and the Council	were in conflict	over their governmental goals and the passage of laws.
Papineau and his Patriot followers	were in conflict	over the power and control of the Legislative Assembly.
The Canadiens and British troops during 1837 in Lower Canada	were in conflict	over the British control of Lower Canada.
The Family Compact and the Reformers	were in conflict	over the power held by the Family Compact in government in Upper Canada.
The Radicals and the government of Upper Canada	were in conflict	over who should control the government.
Rebels and the colony's militia	were in conflict	over who should control the government in Upper Canada.
Upper and Lower Canada and the British Government in 1841	were in conflict	over who should control both governments currently controlled by Britain.